The art soiree hosted by Religare Art last weekend showcased some masterpieces of contemporary Indian art. The gallery displayed over 50 exciting artworks by a range of the leading artists from the modern and contemporary Indian and international art world. The works of artists like FN Souza, MF Hussain, SH Raza, Ram Kumar, Krishen Khanna, Arpana Caur, HA Gade, KH Ara, SG Vasudev, Bhupen Khakhar, Jogen Chowdhury and Manu Parekh, among many others, were displayed. Talking about the event, president of Religare Art, Amit Sarup stated, "This art soiree at the Religare Gallery offers its exclusive guests and collectors an opportunity to engage with beautiful and rarely seen artworks through a display of works by leading artists."

The evening was jointly hosted by Sunil Godhwani, chairman and managing director, Religare Enterprises Ltd, and Ashish Saraf, joint managing director, FACOR and Honorary Consul of Bahamas.

The event saw a fair share of diplomats in attendance, including Bulgarian ambassador Borislav Kostov, Gudmundur Eiriksson, the ambassador of Iceland and Harris MaJeke, the South Africa high commissioner, among others.
