

Newspaper's Name	The Times of India - Delhi Times
Date	18.01.11
Description	Canvas, colours and lots of conversations

Sunaina Malhotra

Payal Verma

SAY CHEESE MOMENT: Ombretta Agro and Mukesh Panika

Amit Sarup

<< Kusum Sawhney & Rene Singh

Pic: Prashant Dhirga

Canvas, colours and lots of conversations

Recently Religare Art opened its month-long exhibition titled 'Iconoclasts & Iconodules', a group art show to promote 16 international artists in India, at its gallery in Scindia House, Connaught Place. On display were the works of artists like Jagannath Panda, TV Santhosh, Julius Macwan, Gagandeep Singh and Daniela Kostova. The show, curated by Ombretta Agro Andruff, attracted a lot of attention as did the Religare Art shop, part of the Religare art facility. Guests were seen admiring the miniature sculptures and other collectibles on display there. "We have chosen different mediums for the show like paintings, photographs, abstract art and digital media. According to me, the art should be connected to you, and when people see it, they should discuss it," explained Ombretta. Samar Jodha was seen clicking pictures. "It's a very nice camera, and I love taking photographs with this," he said as he showed us the gadget. Payal Verma also said she liked the show. "A very different kind of work," she opined. Amit Sarup, president, Religare Art & Family Office, said, "This exhibition is a part of our endeavor to engage with different aspects of art and be a true champion for the cause of art and artists. Our mission is to ensure that all diverse dimensions of art are nurtured and given the right exposure, to ensure that art permeates completely into the societal fabric and enriches a wider consciousness."

Prashant Dhirga

ME AND MY PICS: Chhaya and Samar Jodha