LET'S TALK ART: Konnect, Co-hosted by Promila Bahri and Kanchan Kapoor, showcased the artworks of artists such as MF Husain, Julius Macwan, Anandjit Ray, Jagannath Panda, Bose Krishnamachari, Jitish Kallat and Jogen Chowdhury. The day saw a heady mixture of glitzy society mavens and art at its aesthetic best, and Sufi maestro Zila Khan's performance added melody to the afternoon.

PROMOTING ART: Amit Sarup spoke about the event as one of his company's many endeavours to promote art in the city. "Religare arts was specially introduced to bring about appreciation of art in all its facets - photography, music or art. Each of the artwork in the exhibition has been selected very carefully," he informed. Also, Zila Khan soundly denounced today's so called sufi music. Said she, "They think by adding Allah and Maula they have created music, it's rubbish." She added that she was a big fan of western music, but not pop. "Mick Jagger, now that's music!" she said.
