

Centre calls probe into DDCA illegal; CM says it will go on

New Delhi, Jan 8: The Centre has declared as "unconstitutional and illegal" setting up of a Commission of Inquiry into the DDCA affairs by Delhi government...

Union finance minister Arun Jaitley and Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal during the Bengal Global Business Summit in Kolkata on Friday.

court to scrap the commission, he said. The letter issued by LG's office said the "Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, has accordingly held that the notification... issued by the Directorate of Vigilance, Government of NCT of Delhi, is unconstitutional, illegal and therefore has no legal effect."

The AAP, in separate reaction, claimed the Centre wanted to "save" finance minister Arun Jaitley and was trying to ensure his "role" during his tenure as head of the cricket body was not exposed.

The party has been accusing Jaitley of wrongdoings during his tenure as DDCA chief. The Union finance minister had rubbished the allegations and filed criminal and civil defamation cases in a city court against Kejriwal and five other AAP leaders for making "baseless allegations."

The rejection of Delhi government's decision to probe the affairs of Delhi and District Cricket Association (DDCA) comes on top of a bitter fight between the Arvind Kejriwal-led AAP government and the Centre after the raid on the Delhi Secretariat a month ago.

A letter issued by the Lt Governor's office said the home ministry has held that a notification issued by the vigilance department of Delhi government to set up the inquiry commission has no legal effect.

Reacting sharply, Kejriwal said the commission will continue its probe even after it was declared illegal by the home ministry, insisting that it was appointed in accordance with law and the Constitution.

He asked the Lt Governor, home ministry and the Prime Minister's Office to approach the judiciary in case they are "aggrieved" with the panel that was formed through a notification on December 22 last year.

"DDCA inquiry commission set up by the Delhi government is as per law and constitution of India. Centre's opinion on binding on Del govt. Commission will continue work. If LG or MHA or PMO aggrieved, they may approach court. Only a court order can stop commission's work (sic)," Kejriwal, who is in Kolkata, said in a series of tweets.

Echoing Kejriwal's views, his deputy Manish Sisodia said the "city government is not subordinate of the central government". The Centre's decision to declare the inquiry as "unconstitutional and illegal" may be an opinion and they are free to move
